

DAILY GAZETTE

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1881.

GAZETTE GLEANINGS.

Hogers Bros. are building an addition to their blacksmithing establishment upon Zion Hill.

The First National Bank will be closed to-morrow, out of respect to the memory of President Garfield.

Calvin Fisk sold six lots of the property of the Las Vegas Hill Site Co., to Gardner & Taylor, for one thousand dollars.

Payne & Bartlett have refitted and repainted their room, and arranged their line stock of jewelry in the most artistic style.

The ladies of St. Paul's church solicit orders for plain sewing. Apply to Mrs. Chas. Wheelock or Mrs. A. H. Whitmore.

The types made us say C. C. White yesterday instead of C. C. Wheeler, in speaking of the General Superintendent of the A. T. & S. F. R. R.

Capt. Fitzgerald sold a house and lot yesterday, and was too busy on another trade, when the GAZETTE man saw him, to give the names of the parties.

Bishop Dunlap came up from Santa Fe yesterday, and will conduct services to-day at half-past ten o'clock, in St. Paul's Episcopal church, on the East Side.

Some of our society young gentlemen are making preparations for a pleasant sojourn at Hot Springs, on next Tuesday evening, to be given in honor of Mrs. Fred Harvey.

Hon. L. Bradford Prince returned to Santa Fe yesterday. While in Las Vegas he bought a house and lot on the park, and let the contract for building a house on Blanchard street.

Prof. Robertson thinks the Indian troubles in the South are over for the present. There are no Indians there now except a few scattering ones in the Magdalena mountains.

Messrs. Marcus & Clemm have arranged their stock in neat and tasteful order, and are offering astonishing bargains in general merchandise. See their advertisement in this issue.

A prominent citizen of this city said to us, "if Judge Prince is to be removed, the praises of Las Vegas will not save him, and if he is not, its criticisms will not force him out."

The candy factory is now open and is turning out the finest candy ever shown in this city. Center street East Las Vegas. W. COOPER, Proprietor.

Col. J. A. Lockhart, so well known and esteemed in Las Vegas, and throughout the territory, has purchased Joe O'Brien's place, and will soon open one of the most elaborate saloons in the southwest. —Socorro Miner.

Mr. J. H. Hunter received a dispatch yesterday morning from Omaha, giving the sad intelligence of the death of his baby boy at that place. He left for Omaha on the afternoon train. We tender our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Hunter in their bereavement.

The report of the Territorial Bureau of Immigration as to Rio Arriba county has been received at this office. It is a well prepared and neatly printed summary of the inducements offered by that county to immigrants. It was prepared by Samuel Eldred, Esq., Commissioner of Immigration of Rio Arriba county.

Nothing succeeds like success. Bell & Co., the plaza grocers and bakers, yesterday baked six hundred loaves of bread, besides a vast number of pies, cakes, etc. The baker commenced work at two o'clock in the morning. This great demand for food indicates a healthy growth of population.

Manuelito Blanchard, the little son of Charles Blanchard, yesterday afternoon was lost for about three hours, to the alarm of Mrs. Blanchard and family. He was however discovered riding on the street cars from one town to the other. He had made a number of trips but was unable to make the driver understand where his home was.

Some gentlemen of Las Vegas are circulating a petition to Hon. L. Bradford Prince, asking the appointment of a Clerk of the District Court for San Miguel county. They claim that the law gives Judge Prince authority to make this appointment, while others claim that he cannot do so under the law. When the "doctors disagree" we must "hide our time."

Houses are springing up all over town. New contracts are being let every day, and business of every kind is going forward with a rush. Our real estate men are making sales daily, property of every kind is rapidly enhancing in value. Immigrants are coming in on every train, and everything in the outlook is replete with promise of a grand future for Las Vegas.

The go-as-you-please, free for all fight between the Santa Fe and Las Vegas newspapers still rages. It may be that some unfortunate journal may displease the Bernalillo News sometime, and then perhaps we won't show up the "scurrilous sheet." Ha! We sharpen our pen and glare at our exchanges. —Bernalillo News.

The above is news to us. We know of no fight between the Las Vegas and Santa Fe papers. What do you drink in Bernalillo, anyhow?

W. W. Borst, division superintendent of the A. T. & S. F. R. R., came in yesterday and stopped at the Depot hotel.

Judge Prince made a flying visit to this city to look after the house he is building on Douglas street, and to arrange for other buildings he contemplates erecting. The court in Santa Fe adjourned at midnight on Thursday, ending the long circuit of nine weeks, which, this time, has been an unusually laborious one. The Judge returned to Santa Fe yesterday, and will make an address on Monday at the Garfield memorial ceremonies, and on Tuesday at the laying of the corner stone of the new Episcopal church in that city.

Cohenour, of the Baptist church, who will be assisted in the services by Prof. W. H. Ashley and Rev. J. C. Eastman. Let all citizens lay aside their labors at the hour and come together to pay that tribute of respect due the nation's fallen chief.

"Takes the Cake." Mr. J. H. KOUGLER—Will you please publish in your paper that the young ladies of Vegas have voted Mr. Bernard and Mr. Crawford the two handsomest gentlemen (?) of Vegas. It is hard to decide which "takes the cake," now Willie Fabian is gone.

Yours respectfully,

THE YOUNG LADIES OF VEGAS.

The GAZETTE man learned, yesterday, that a daring robbery had been perpetrated the night before at Lamy Junction, and he repaired at once to the office of Messrs. Brown & Manzanares to get details. Mr. Manzanares had only received a telegram stating in substance that four men, heavily armed, had entered their store at that place the evening before between seven and eight o'clock and commanded all hands to "hold up" and then proceeded to pilfer the store, taking all the money on hand and a number of guns and pistols, saddles and the like, and then mounted two horses belonging to Placido Sandoval, agent of Messrs. Brown & Manzanares and rode away. By taking all the weapons in the store the thieves literally "disarmed the pursuit." We do trust that such prompt and effective measures will be taken for the apprehension and condign punishment of these thieves as to deter others from attempting similar crimes, and that this Territory may not share the unenviable reputation suffered by some of the States on account of such acts.

If no response is received to the telegram announcing the death of James Hincheliff before this afternoon he will be buried by his printer friends of this city, who have like "good samaritans" ministered to him in his sufferings, with no desire or expectation of other reward than the consciousness of having performed a humane duty to a suffering fellow craftsman.

Mining Notes.

SOCORRO.

Great excitement is produced in the Socorro mountain over the rich strike made in the Socorro tunnel. Captain Mills, at 310 feet from the entrance, discovered a hitherto neglected vein of quartzite and lime. Specimens being assayed yielded the extraordinary result below:

Silver, 487 ounces, Troy, $545.44, Gold, 14.1 282.44

Silver, 489 ounces, Troy, $547.55, Gold, 11.3 223

$770.68

ALEX. CASE, Assayer.

Gold, 16 1/2 ounces, $310.25, Silver, 920 1/2 1030.65

$1341.90

Gold, 2 ounces $11.34, Silver, 173 150.08

$101.42

T. E. SIMMONS, Assayer.

These extraordinary leads is twenty inches in width and pitches west into the mountain at an angle of eighty degrees. The mineral and gangue is lined by a thin coating of talc, the walls are porphyritic. The most intense excitement exists and mining property has advanced materially. We will examine this property in person next week and will report in next issue. —Socorro Miner.

James W. Hincheliff who was shot on last Thursday night, in a saloon on the East Side, died yesterday afternoon at 15 minutes to four o'clock. The ball entered the upper part of the chest a little to the right of the sternum penetrating the upper part of the right lung, and the immediate cause of his death was secondary hemorrhage. He had been in Las Vegas about two months, and although a stranger, having no relatives in this city, he had all necessary care and attention. Drs. Gordon and Henriques did all that medical skill could do, and the printers in the Optic and GAZETTE offices, with the generous characteristic of the craft, watched by his bedside and ministered to his wants with true fraternal kindness and liberality. At his request a brother living in St. Louis was written to Friday, and when it was found that he was dying a telegram was sent, but up to this writing no response has been received. As soon as he was dead Judge Steele had a jury summoned and their verdict was that he came to his death from the effect of a pistol shot wound inflicted by Archer Talbott.

Funeral Notice.

The burial of James E. Hincheliff, the printer who died yesterday, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the Optic block. All are cordially invited to attend.
